Friday Night Football Patrol scores a TOUCHDOWN!

On September 20th, Fountain Hills High School welcomed Bill Montgomery of the Maricopa County Attorney's Office, KISSFM Radio and the US ARMY in a school-wide campaign where over 350 students took the pledge to stay drug and alcohol free.

A drawing from those who pledged awarded John Rodriguez, Class of 2017, a $500 Visa Gift Card during half-time. The Fountain Hills Coalition was also out in force educating adults on the dangers of youth and underage drinking. Parents who took the Safe Homes Network pledge were entered in a drawing for a $100 Visa and $50 Sami's Fine Jewelry gift card.

It was a great night all around watching the mighty Falcons play and spreading the message of health and safety to all!
